UNIVERSITY OF NEW MEXICO

UNM McKinnon Center for Management at the Anderson School of Business

University of New Mexico Anderson faculty members have developed a program that is unique in the country, if not the world, with the following characteristics and benefits to students:

• Master's of Information Systems and Assurance offered through UNM's Anderson School of Management
• Partnership with the FBI and its Regional Computer Forensics Lab (RCFL), housed at UNM, through training, student internships, and co-ops
• A partnership with the Department of Energy's first satellite office for the Center for Cyber Defenders through Sandia National Laboratories
• The Metro Law Enforcement Internship program designed for students to work with local crime units
• A designation from the National Security Agency (NSA) and the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) as a Center of Academic Excellence in Cyber Defense Education (CAE-CD) and Research (CAE-R)

UNM also offers an Information Assurance Scholarship for Service Program. The UNM Information Assurance Scholarship for Service (SFS) program is funded through a National Science Foundation grant to provide scholarships to complete a master's degree in the information assurance (IA) field.

UNM SFS students have been placed in internships and careers at the Department of Defense, Department of Homeland Security, Department of Treasury, Environmental Protection Agency, Federal Bureau of Investigation, Federal Reserve Bank, Los Alamos National Labs, National Institute of Standards, National Security Administration, Sandia National Labs, and Securities and Exchange Commission.
