Students, Launch Your Cyber Career

Do you want to work with the latest technology? Do you like solving problems with creative solutions? Would you like to turn those interests into a lucrative career with opportunities for growth?

Almost everything we do connects to the internet in some way, but our line of defense against possible cyber threats is limited due to a lack of cybersecurity professionals. Do you have what it takes to combat cybercrime?

Cybersecurity is the practice of protecting networks, systems, programs, and data from criminal or unauthorized use.
